Re: Your client: Jay Breyer

Dear Attorney Rattray:

I have been retained as corporate counsel for YES Incorporated. I expect the following:

1. That Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP directs all future correspondence to myself.
2. That Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP will direct any summons and complaints regarding civil law suits filed on behalf of your client Jay Breyer, be they FRIVOLOUS or UNFRIVOLOUS.
3. Mr. Breyer compile a complete list of personal items belonging to him including file names, serial numbers, sales receipts, bills of Lading, etc. to prove ownership or any other documents that prove ownership.
4. Your client immediately forward to my office any bank account numbers, check books, checks or any other financial documents that are the property of YES, Incorporated.
5. Your client cease and desist any and all financial transactions that could in any way be related to the checking and or other financial accounts of YES Incorporated.
6. Your client cooperate fully with any current internal or external investigation on the part of YES Incorporated.
7. Your client cease and desist from any and all activates, writings and public or private comments which would tend to impugn the reputation of YES Incorporated.
8. Your office contact my office immediately to arrange a meeting to discuss the future course of events.
9. You examine fully all conflicts that may arise from representation of this client.

I look forward to meeting with you in the near future. And that we can accomplish an amicable solution to these matters without further legal action on either of our parts. If you have any questions or comments please feel free to contact me at the number listed below.

As ever,

Edmund J. Jelinski
